Narrative

1. On November 19, 2022, at approximately 2:20 p.m., I searched bedroom with FBI TS Hadaway, while other members of the investigation team including crime scene lead ISP Det. Talbott were present.
2. bedroom is the located room within the residence. During the time of the quadruple murder, reported she witnessed the murder suspect, later identified as Bryan C. Kohberger (KOHBERGER), at close proximity while she stood at her bedroom doorway. ISP Forensics Scientist had identified a bloody shoeprint outside of bedroom believed to belong to KOHBERGER.
3. Upon entering room, I photographed the bedroom with an emphasis upon her wall-hangings and artwork. While conducting a search of her bedroom, the following items were noted and or seized, see ISP Det. Talbott's evidence forms for seized items:
 - A. The bedroom had a low amount of alcohol compared to other first and second level bedrooms within the residence. There was a myriad of personal items, notebooks, and textbooks consistent with a college student.
 - B. Artwork of with an emphasis upon the were pinned to corkboards along with from magazines.
 - C. A letter from sorority, (later confirmed to be) was in a clear plastic shoe box within the bedroom closet.
 - D. A was located on the vanity within the bedroom.
 - E. A sorority was located in a black backpack which was under the bed.
4. I concluded the bedroom search at approximately 3:50 p.m.
